

"I am with you always..." (Matt. 28:20) Ministering in Times of Spiritual Distress

A Free Pastoral Care Mini-Presentation – Saturday, January 12, 2019

The crisis of our time has left so many people in spiritual distress. In pastoral ministry, sadly, we often encounter such people. As pastoral care givers, let us not lose sight of the "treasures" in darkness. The expression, "I am with you always, even to the end of the age" (Matthew 28:20), assures us that Jesus will be with us to support us in difficult times. It is a time for gentle discernment as we encounter this distress, reminding ourselves and those we serve of the enduring presence of Jesus.

Please join us for this free morning mini-presentation with presenters
Father Joseph Mali & Sr. Katherine Hanley

Fr. Joseph presently serves as chaplain at Saint Peter's Health Partners, Albany. He has earned 4 units of Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) at Vassar Brothers Medical Center, Poughkeepsie, and at Albany Medical Center. He has served as the Catholic Chaplain of Bard College, Annandale-on-Hudson and the Chaplain of Saint Francis Hospital, Poughkeepsie, New York. He holds a Ph.D. in Scripture from Fordham University, and teaches at Saint Bernard's School of Theology and Ministry, Albany.

Sister Kitty, a Sister of St. Joseph, has been faculty member at The College of Saint Rose, Dean and faculty member at St. Bernard's School of Theology and Ministry and presenter/ retreat director throughout the United States and Europe. Currently, she directs Holy Ground, our diocesan program to form spiritual directors.
